

Conference Speakers

Rev. Jim Barnes

The Reverend Jim Barnes has served as National Minister of the Evangelical Association since October, 2009. Before becoming full time with the association, he worked for 21 years as the Senior Pastor at Bethesda Evangelical Church in St. Louis, Missouri. Throughout his ministry career, Pastor Jim has been very involved in church renewal and has served on the board of directors of both the Biblical Witness Fellowship and the Evangelical Association; two groups seeking to provide options for Bible-believing churches and pastors within the Evangelical, Reformed, Congregational and Christian traditions.

He has a Masters of Divinity degree from Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California. Currently he and his wife, Patti reside in St. Louis. They have three grown children.

Rev. David Franks

The Reverend David Franks has been the Senior Pastor of First Reformed Church in Landis for the past 28 years.

Rev. Franks graduated from Elon College and received a Masters of Divinity degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Rev. Franks and his wife Dawn reside in China Grove, NC. They have two grown children, Lauren and Leslie.

Luke 2:49

KJV

“And He said unto them,
How is it that you sought me?
Wist ye not that I must be about my Father’s business?”

Be About It!

In this world many are lost, hurting and homeless. As Christians, we are called to be the hands and feet of Jesus. The goal of this conference is to inspire us all, not only to talk about God, His Kingdom, and our Spirit lead service; but also to be about it. It being defined as “My Father’s business”. Let’s commit to find our place in Kingdom Building. Let’s look intentionally for opportunities to show and proclaim Jesus, and not just talk about it.
